North End Artists Co-Op

Call to Artists

Applications will be received on an ongoing basis until all spaces are filled.

About: Through the North End Artists Co-Op, the City of Yuma promotes artists living in the Yuma area by providing the opportunity to display works and demonstrate their work to the public. The group presents weekly demonstrations and workshops each Saturday from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm, from September through May in the Yuma Art Center's United Building where they also have works on display in the front windows.

Member Commitment and Eligibility:

- Membership is limited to artists who are year round residents in the Yuma area and artists must be available a minimum of five Saturdays from September through May.
- Members must also be available for monthly meetings on the last Wednesday of each month at 5:30 pm at the Yuma Art Center.
- Members will display their artwork in the front window display area of the United Building at 254. S. Main Street. All artwork on display must be for sale and artwork that has not sold within a three month time frame must be removed and refreshed with new works.
- Members are on individual sales agreements with the Yuma Art Center and must follow all sales terms and conditions.
- Members will pay a $25 application fee to the North End Artists Co-Op. Funds will be used solely for the Co-Op for display needs and member showcase receptions.

To Apply

- Submit this completed application and supplemental materials to Arts@YumaAz.gov or mail to the Yuma Art Center, Attn: North End Artists Co-Op, 254 S. Main Street, Yuma, AZ 85364.
- Attach 5-10 images of original artwork. Please include an inventory listing with size and media used. Images will be used solely for membership review purposes and will not be reproduced.
- Attach a brief artist statement and/or an artist resume.
- Applications will be reviewed by the membership and applicants will be invited to attend and present their work at an upcoming monthly meeting.
